As part of

TASMANIAN INTERNATIONAL
ARTS
FEST IVAL

Blue Angel will occupy Hobart's iconic Astor Private Hotel from 24 to 29 March in an immersive site-specific event combining music, art and performance. Stay overnight or come for the evening.

It will bring to life great stories of the sea and give audiences a searing insight into the largely untold reality of the contemporary seafaring experience.

Big hART has sought seafarers from across the state and cast them alongside Australia's best, including actor Kerry Armstrong and musician Mikelangelo. Award winning artists led by Robert Hannaford and Evert Ploeg have been capturing portraits of seafarers and these will grace the walls of every room in the Astor Private Hotel.

Big hART, Australia's leading arts and social change company, has been importing and exporting tall tales and true stories from port cities in this collaborative project, where art is the cargo and the heart is filled with the desire for "Fair Transport".

At the end of the season of Blue Angel, continue your Astor experience with elegant dining in stunning art deco surrounds at one of Hobart's most iconic restaurants, The Astor Grill.
